Friday 25th August 6.30pm

KALINKA (Au nom de ma fille) Thriller, Drama • 87 MINS • MA 15+

Director: Vincent Garenq • Stars: Daniel Auteuil, Sebastian Koch, Marie-Josée Croze, Christelle Cornil

Based on an extraordinary true story, this is the epic tale of a father's relentless search for justice. In 1982, Kalinka Bamberski, 14 years old, was found dead in her stepfather's house in Germany. Despite the suspicious circumstances surrounding her death, the case was swiftly closed without conviction. However, the battle was far from over for her devastated father, André Bamberski (Daniel Auteuil). Over three decades, André would make it his sole mission to apprehend and imprison the man that he believed killed his daughter. Constant injustices hurled in his path ultimately serve to reinforce his determination. This thrilling and stirring journey will plunge you to the depths of one father's most desperate emotions, forcing the question of how far would you go to defend the memory and dignity of your own child?

JUSTE LA FIN DU MONDE (It's Only the End of the World) • DRAMA • 97 MINS • M

Director: Xavier Dolan • Stars: Gaspard Ulliel, Nathalie Baye, Léa Seydoux, Vincent Cassel, Marion Cotillard

After a 12-year absence, prize-winning dramatist Louis (Gaspard Ulliel) returns home to tell his estranged family that he is terminally ill. Upon his arrival, he is greeted with bickering and recriminations from his family who have been left behind. Beneath their affections for Louis, each encounter shows the confusion and disappointment felt by his long unexplained departure. As old tensions begin to surface, the gathering of his mother (Nathalie Baye), brother (Vincent Cassel), sister (Léa Seydoux) and meek sister-in-law (Marion Cotillard) develops from a tight-lipped greeting into a fully-formed storm. All the while, the beautiful and doomed Louis is waiting for his moment to break the news.

Saturday 26th August 5pm

LA DANSEUSE (The Dancer) DRAMA • 108 MINS • M

Director: Stéphane Di Giusto • Stars: Soko, Lily-Rose Depp, Mélanie Thierry, Gaspard Ulliel

Inspired by the true story of two rival pioneers of modern dance and theatrical performance in late 19th-century Paris. Nothing in her background destined Loie Fuller (Soko), born in the American Midwest, to become the toast of the Belle Époque cabarets, or to perform at the Paris Opera. Yet with her revolutionary "Serpentine" dance she enthralled audiences and became the blazing symbol of a generation. Even as the physical effort risked destroying her back, she never faltered in the quest to perfect her art. But it was Loie's meeting with Isadora Duncan (Depp), a beautiful young prodigy hungry for glory that threatened everything: her stature, her confidence and her sanity.

Sunday 27th August 2pm

MÉDECIN DE CAMPAGNE (The Country Doctor) • DRAMA • 102 MINS • M

Director: Thomas Lilti • Stars: François Cluzet, Marianne Denicourt, Isabelle Sadoyan, Félix Moati

Jean-Pierre Werner (Cluzet) is a kind, no-nonsense, firmly established country doctor, who works gruelling hours and whose role in the community often extends beyond simply overseeing the physical well-being of his patients. When he is diagnosed with an illness which demands he stop work, he is forced to take on a replacement who, to his dismay, is the inexperienced Nathalie (Isabelle Sadoyan). Jean-Pierre struggles to accept his reality and let go of his work, entirely unconvinced that Nathalie has what it takes to replace him. This only serves to make the handover more challenging, but little does Jean-Pierre know that beyond Nathalie's often humorous beginner faux-pas lies a strong and resourceful woman who is determined to meet the demands of the role and break the ice with his loyal, albeit quirky, patients.

Sunday 27th August 5pm

VICTORIA (In Bed with Victoria) • DRAMA • 97 MINS • M

Director: Justine Triet • Stars: Virginie Efira, Vincent Lacoste, Melvil Poupaud, Laurent Poitreaux

"You're the queen of drama queens," states the love interest of Victoria (Virginie Efira), a shrewd Parisian criminal lawyer and single mother battling to survive in the unpredictable worlds of the courtroom and the bedroom. Low sexual libido is just one of Victoria's many mid-life crises in this delightfully quirky and amusing contemporary comedy. She is also juggling two young daughters; an ex-husband whose blog lays bare her past exploits; a much younger potential love interest (Vincent Lacoste) who happens to be an ex-drug-dealer; and to top it all off, she is working on what could be the strangest assault trial in legal history involving a chimpanzee and a dalmatian as character witnesses. This is a comedy guaranteed to charm.

Tickets available only from Ballina Fair Cinemas. Advance purchase recommended.
