Tickets available only from Ballina Fair Cinemas. Advance purchase recommended.

Friday 25 May 6pm
De plus belle
(Ladies) M 99mins
Director: Anne-Gaëlle Daval.
Actors: Florence Foresti, Mathieu Kassovitz, Nicole Garcia
Lucie is in remission. Her family pushes her to live life to the fullest. She meets charming and arrogant Clovis, who is immediately beguiled by her wit and humour. It is Dalila, however, an eccentric and delightful dance teacher, who inspires Lucie to rebuild her life.

Saturday 26 May 2pm
Ce qui nous lie
(Back to Burgundy) M 113mins
Director: Cédric Klapisch
Actors: Pio Marmaï, Ana Girardot, François Civil, Jean-Marc Roulot
With the death of his father looming, Jean returns from his Australian winery to his childhood 'domaine' in Burgundy. He takes over the family's vineyard with his siblings. Over the course of a year, they put aside their resentments about the past to maintain their father's legacy and defy expectations of those around them.

Saturday 26 May 5pm
Numéro Une
(Number One) M 110 mins
Director: Tonie Marshall
Actors: Emmanuelle Devos, Benjamin Biolay, Richard Berry, Sami Frey
Emmanuelle has risen through the ranks to sit on a board of directors. An influential network of women offers to help her become head of France's biggest water company, which at first seems like an exciting challenge but degenerates into gender war against the 'ancien regime' of corporate white male privilege.

Sunday 27 May 2pm
Belle et Sébastien 3
(Friends for Life) PG 97mins
Director: Clovis Cornillac
Actors: Félix Bossuet, Tchéky Karyo, Clovis Cornillac, Margaux Chatelier
A six-year-old and his dog sought to foil a Nazi attempt to capture French resistance fighters. Sebastian is now aged 12, and has decided not to follow his father to Canada, choosing to remain with César to watch over Belle who's now become mother to three beautiful pups. A stranger arrives claiming to be Belle's rightful owner.

Sunday 27 May 5pm
La Mélodie
(Orchestra Class) M 102mins
Director: Rachis Hami
Stars: Kad Merad, Samir Guesmi, Alfred Renely, Jean-Luc Vincent
A down-on-his-luck musician winds up teaching a sixth-grade orchestra. Simon's multicultural class of rambunctious, trash-talking 12-year-olds proves to be a test for his patience, but there is one in which he sees potential, a painfully shy but gifted boy, Arnold. Simon makes a promise to his class to take them to perform at the Paris Philharmonic. But will they make it?
